n today’s uncertain and volatile climate, the practice of population health has taken on even more importance. As health care leaders, we understand the impact of social determinants on our nation’s health. The fact that zip code is a better predictor of health than a person’s genetic code is a clear indicator of the need to create healthier communities. By working to connect the disparate segments of our fragmented health system we can make progress toward controlling the cost of care, improving quality and ultimately achieve better health outcomes.

Population health has been a key component of the ACA, as a means of addressing these challenging issues. With the legislative shifts promised by the new President and Congress, it will be important to maintain the focus on practicing population-based care, as it is critical to establishing better health outcomes, improving access to care, and managing costs.

The push toward providing healthcare consumers with on-demand, seamlessly coordinated high-quality care is paving the way for a disruptive, exciting and eventful time in the industry. The Seventeenth National Population Health Colloquium has assembled a stellar lineup, including some of the foremost and visionary thought leaders, to help us navigate through this revolutionary transition.

This 3-day conference will bring together healthcare providers, payers, the pharmaceutical industry, leading technology and solutions companies, academia and government to share best practices, case studies, expert insights and industry trends.

The Seventeenth National Population Health Colloquium will feature:

• Announcement of the winner of the 2017 Hearst Health Prize for Excellence in Population Health

• A special dinner program on the future of clinically integrated networks

• Three Preconference sessions

• Breakout sessions focused on:
  • Developing and Executing a Population Health Strategy
  • Using Population Health to Meet Community Needs
  • Science, Innovation and Discovery
  • Patient Engagement and Communication
  • Multiple opportunities for networking with peers, including an opening night reception in the exhibit hall

The Jefferson College of Population Health is proud to serve as the Academic Partner for the Colloquium. Population Health is critical to establishing better health outcomes. We are greatly encouraged by the new partnerships and collaborations whose ultimate goal is to improve the health of our population.

We hope you will join us for this exciting program!

— David B. Nash, MD, MBA, FACP, Dean, Jefferson College of Population Health, Thomas Jefferson University

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

7:00 AM REGISTRATION OPENS

PRECONFERENCE SYMPOSIA

8:00 AM PRECONFERENCE 1: THE VOICE OF THE PATIENT IN POPULATION HEALTH

(Registration optional; Required for Population Health Training Program)

This engaging, interactive preconference will share the latest research and perspectives on the voice of the patient in health care. The most recent evidence on patient and family engagement will be presented by the team at the O’Neil Center at GetWellNetwork, whose mission is to advance the science of patient and family engagement.

The day kicks off with a keynote presentation by Michael O’Neil, CEO and Founder of GetWellNetwork, who was diagnosed with non-Hodgkins lymphoma at age 28 and then dedicated his life’s work to leveraging technology to engage people in their care. The innovative work at the O’Neil Center includes the application of the Interactive Care Model™ and the new Person Engagement Index©.

Join Michael and his team from the GetWellNetwork, Inc. and the O’Neil Center as they discuss ways to advance the integration of patient and family engagement into health care delivery.

Session Overview/Objectives

• Relate a case study about a person’s care experience to the needs of the health care system to improve population health.
• Identify the development and uses of a Person Engagement Index (PEI) to assess a person’s capacity to be engaged in their care journey.

Speakers:
Karen Drenkard, PhD, RN, Senior Vice President/Chief Clinical Officer and Chief Nurse, O’Neil Center at GetWellNetwork Inc., Bethesda, MD
Michael O’Neil, JD, MBA, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, GetWellNetwork Inc., Bethesda, MD
Ellen Swartwout, PhD, RN, NEA-BC, Vice President/Research and Analytics, O’Neil Center at GetWellNetwork, Bethesda, MD

12:00 PM ADJOURNMENT

8:00 AM PRECONFERENCE 3: ROI IN WELLNESS: GETTING THE REAL STORY (VALIDATION INSTITUTE CERTIFICATION COURSE)

(Registration optional)

Wondering whether your wellness program will deliver savings and results? Want to make sure you are choosing the programs with the highest impact and best savings? This course is for you!

Walk away with
• Useful, practical tools for discerning high value from hype
• Scientific methods to assess a vendor’s ROI promises, and
• Confidence to make great choices for your wellness programs.

You will understand population health metrics, how measures work, and the role of measure stewards. Lots of case studies and step-by-step analysis, along with small group discussion, will make this few hours valuable time spent.

How many thousands of dollars will you be able to find, once you have these methods and tools?

Take the final exam and you will also walk away with a new credential. (Exam is optional.) You will be a certified as a population health consultant by the Validation Institute, and get a listing on the Institute’s website.

EXHIBIT AND SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Take advantage of this unique opportunity to expand your reach! The Colloquium is attended by highly influential and experienced professionals. Sponsorship offers you strategic positioning as an industry leader. For more information call 206-673-4815 or email exhibits@hcconferences.com.
The National Population Health Colloquium is offering a Training Program in the form of an optional continuing professional education course within the conference. The purpose is to provide the opportunity for a deeper exploration of the topics covered in the Colloquium sessions.

Who Should Attend?
The training program will be of interest to those working in or with government agencies, employers, consumer groups, quality organizations, health plans, hospitals, nursing homes, physicians and physician organizations, home health agencies, nurses and other clinicians, and those working in health care finance.

Learning Objectives and Course Description:
The content is focused on practical application and implementation of population health management strategies, care coordination, patient engagement and activation, and new innovations and technologies to support these efforts. The material in this training program is purposely geared to appeal to a broad audience of individuals working in the field; it is not confined to one particular discipline, since the successful practice of population health requires a holistic approach and encompasses many perspectives.

Program Requirements:
- Completion of pre-course readings (3 hours)
- Attend Preconference I, either in person or online
- Attend Colloquium either in person or online
- Successful completion of the post-conference exam online. Exam questions will be pulled from pre-course readings and conference sessions.

Course Completion:
In order to earn a certificate of completion, participants must complete all of the course requirements as outlined above and achieve a minimum score of eighty percent (80%) on the online post-conference examination. Course participants will have 90 days to complete the related online examination.

Special Benefit for Training Program Participants:
Participants who successfully complete this Training Course are eligible to receive a 15% discount to the Population Health Academy, a 5-day continuing education program offered through Thomas Jefferson University’s College of Population Health. To be eligible for this discount, Population Health Colloquium attendees must enroll by July 1, 2018. (This offer is for new registrants only).

For more information about the Population Health Academy and Jefferson’s graduate degree and certificate programs, visit www.Jefferson.edu/PopulationHealth.

Frequently Asked Questions:
1. Is the Population Health Training Program a professional certification program?
   It is not. The program is an attempt to offer additional information and insights associated with the material presented during the Colloquium sessions, and to provide attendees with evidence of mastery of the material through the issuance of a certificate of completion.

2. Please describe the post meeting online examination.
   The examination consists of a bank of multiple-choice questions based upon the information made available in the preconference readings and session, and presentations within the Colloquium agenda. Participants will be given a web link to the examination and a unique username and password to access the examination, and may take it at any time during the ninety (90) days following the Colloquium. The examination is timed, and candidates will have one hour to complete it once begun. The examination may be taken up to three (3) times. New questions will rotate through the examination. Candidates must score eighty percent (80%) or more to successfully complete this requirement.

SPONSORED MINI SUMMITS 1:00 – 3:00 PM

Mini Summit 1: Advancing Interoperability Across Care Settings
Sponsored by Allscripts
Healthcare is a group effort, and having full visibility into a patient’s records is critical to improving population health. In this session, we will explore the process of creating interoperability across care settings, what challenges you might encounter, and what true interoperability looks like.
Come hear from healthcare leaders who have achieved quantifiable benefits from developing interoperability as a key component of their population health strategy.

Mini Summit 2: Executive Perspectives on the Transformation to Value-Based Care
Sponsored by Optum
This session will feature customer case studies from two providers that are thriving in the transition to value-based care through leveraging clinical, claims, and social data. Optum’s value-based care expert will lead a question and answer session as the two organizations discuss future planning and the impact of MACRA and other new programs.

Mini Summit 3: The “Ultimate Game Changers” Game — How Will Healthcare Change in 2017?
Sponsored by xScion
Join our panel of population health experts for a game style Q&A about the future of healthcare including Technology, Medicare, Medicaid and more.
Bob Esposito, Chief Executive Officer, NAVEOS, Sterling, VA
Russ Mohawk, President and Chief Executive Officer of Health Plans and Population Health Services, Inova Health Systems, Falls Church, VA
Jesse James, MD, MBA, CMIO, Evolent, Arlington, VA
Vikas Arya, Principal of Strategy, xScion Solutions, Gaithersburg, MD

Mini Summit 4: If You Think Patient Data Is About Wearable Devices, You’re Wrong
Sponsored by TrackCloud and Parnassus Consulting
If you have spent any time thinking about using mobile apps or wearable devices with patients, you undoubtedly have a few questions…
• Will clinicians be overloaded with data?
• Is patient-generated data both accurate and useful?
• Will the patient-generated health data (PGHD) interface with the EMR and clinical workflows?
• Can I manage the liability?
• Do patients really have the technology, skills, and follow-through to make it work, or is patient-generated data just a fad?
This session will feature an extended discussion, including Q/A, with clinicians, administrators, data analysts, and technology entrepreneurs using real patient case studies and data over three years. Join us for an interactive exploration of the challenges and successes of incorporating patient-generated data into a variety of patient care settings.
Daniel Foltz, President and Managing Director, Parnassus Consulting, Ardmore, PA
Tom Riley, Chief Executive Officer, TrackCloud, Northbrook, IL

Mini Summit 5: Health Systems and Pharmaceuticals: Best Practices for Population Health
Sponsored by The Access Group
In the near future, health systems will likely have their own provider-sponsored plans using preferred treatments in order to reduce total cost of care. In addition, treatment protocols and care pathways will be enforced through electronic medical record systems. This session will review the past, present, and future evolution of health systems and how preferred treatments may be used to improve population health outcomes.
Richard Stefanacci, DO, MGH, MBA, AGSF, CMD, Chief Medical Officer, The Access Group; Jefferson College of Population Health Faculty, Berkeley Heights, NJ
Scott Guerin, PhD, Senior Director of Government Policy Systems and Analytics, The Access Group, Berkeley Heights, NJ

TUESDAY EVENING DINNER PROGRAM:
The Future of Clinically Integrated Networks

Optional Dinner Program
Fee: $95. Includes reception, dinner and presentation/discussion
Seating is limited. Register by March 20, 2017

In today’s market-driven society, healthcare is moving from volume to value. In order for hospitals to thrive in this economy, many have formed clinically integrated networks, linking multiple hospitals and ambulatory facilities.

Michael Dowling, President and CEO, Northwell Health and Dr. Stephen Klasko, President and CEO, Thomas Jefferson University and Jefferson Health, are two leaders who have successfully been able to build a robust network.

Join them for an interactive discussion on the challenges of building a CIN and what we can expect in the future.

THE FOLLOWING REGISTRATION TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLY

REGARDING WEBCAST REGISTRATIONS
1. Individuals or groups may register for Internet access. Conference plenary sessions are broadcast in video. Conference preconference and concurrent sessions are broadcast in audio only. Organizations may register for group access without presenting specific registrant names. In such instances the registering organization will be presented a series of user names and passwords to distribute to participants.
2. Each registrant will receive a user name and password for access. Registrants will be able to change their user names and passwords and manage their accounts.
3. Internet registrants will enjoy six (6) months access from date of issuance of user name and password.
4. Only one user (per user name and password) may view or access archived conference. It is not permissible to share user name and password with third parties. Should Internet registrants choose to access post conference content via Flash Drive, this individual use limitation applies. It is not permissible to share alternative media with third parties.
5. User name and password use will be monitored to assure compliance.
6. Each Internet registration is subject to a "bandwidth" or capacity use cap of 5 gb per user per month. When this capacity use cap is hit, the registration lapses. Said registration will be again made available at the start of the next month so long as the registration period has not lapsed and is subject to the same capacity cap.
7. For Webcast registrants there will be no refunds for cancellations. Please call the Conference Office at 800-503-7439 or 206-452-5203 for further information.

REGARDING ONSITE REGISTRATION, CANCELLATIONS AND SUBSTITUTIONS
1. For onsite group registrations, full registration and credit card information is required for each registrant. List all members of groups registering concurrently on fax or scanned cover sheet.
2. For onsite registrants there will be no refunds for "no-shows" or for cancellations. You may send a substitute or switch to the Webcast option. Please call the Conference Office at 800-503-7439 or 206-452-5203 for further information.

Expenses of training including tuition, travel, lodging and meals, incurred to maintain or improve skills in your profession may be tax deductible. Consult your tax advisor. Federal Tax ID: 91-1892021.

CANCELLATIONS/SUBSTITUTIONS
No refunds will be given for "no-shows" or for cancellations of either Webcast or onsite registrations. You may send a substitute or transfer your onsite registration to a Webcast registration. For more information, please call the Conference Office at 800-503-7439 or 206-452-5203.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY POLICY
Unauthorized sharing of Colloquium content via Internet access through the sharing of user names and passwords or via alternative media (Flash Drive) through the sharing of said media is restricted by law and may subject the copyright infringer to substantial civil damages. The Colloquium aggressively pursues copyright infringers. If a registrant needs the ability to share Colloquium content within his or her organization, multiple Colloquium registrations are available at discounted rates.

The Colloquium will pay a reward for information regarding unauthorized sharing of Colloquium content. The reward will be one quarter (25%) of any recovery resulting from a copyright infringement (less legal fees and other expenses related to the recovery) up to a maximum reward payment of $25,000. The payment will be made to the individual or individuals who in the opinion of our legal counsel first provided the factual information, which was necessary for the recovery. If you have knowledge regarding the unauthorized Colloquium content sharing, contact the Colloquium registration office.

TUITION SCHOLARSHIPS
The Population Health Colloquium is now offering a limited number of partial and full Tuition Scholarships to qualifying representatives of consumer advocate organizations, safety net providers, academics, students and health services research organizations. The Tuition Scholarship application form can be downloaded from the Colloquium website.

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS (CEUs)

NASBA CPE CREDIT
Health Care Conference Administrators, LLC is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.learningmarket.org. A recommended maximum of 18.00 credits based on a 50-minute hour will be granted for the entire learning activity. This program addresses topics that are of a current concern in the compliance environment. This is an update, group-live activity. For more information regarding administrative policies such as complaints or refunds, call 206-757-8053 or petergrant@dwt.com.

ABQAURP Diplomates who would like to utilize CE credits received from an accredited provider other than ABQAURP must complete and return this form with the required documentation and fees: www.abqaurnp.org/pdf/recert-app.pdf. The Colloquium will issue a certificate of attendance to be submitted in conjunction with the ABQAURP form.

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE
Onsite attendees can also request a Certificate of Attendance which they can file with appropriate entities for credit, and webcast attendees can request a Webcast Certificate of Attendance on which they can certify the number of hours they watched and can file with appropriate entities for credit.

REGISTRATION BINDING AGREEMENT
Registration (whether online or by this form) constitutes a contract and all of these terms and conditions are binding on the parties. In particular, these terms and conditions shall apply in the case of any credit/debit card dispute.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS
Program subject to cancellation or change. If the program is cancelled the only liability of the Colloquium will be to refund the registration fee paid. The Colloquium shall have no liability regarding travel or other costs. Registration form submitted via fax, mail, email or online constitutes binding agreement between the parties.
