

Don Antonucci

Don Antonucci is the President and CEO of Providence Health Plan, a non-profit health insurance plan integrated with Providence St. Joseph Health, one of the nation's largest health systems. Under Don's leadership, Providence Health Plan has steadily expanded membership with more than 600,000 covered lives in states along the West Coast. A relentless advocate for improving equitable access to high-quality, affordable healthcare, Don leads Providence Health Plan caregivers with a focus on superior member experiences and positive outcomes guided by the Providence Promise of "know me, care for me, ease my way." A veteran industry leader with more than 25 years of experience, Don is frequently asked to share his insights through national media and events. He speaks often around the importance of behavioral health access, servant leadership and value-based care as the future of healthcare. Prior to joining Providence Health Plan in 2021, Don served as Senior Vice President of Growth at Blue Shield of California where he led membership growth and held P&L accountability for every line of business. Don holds a master's degree in public policy analysis and administration from the State University of New York at Binghamton University, and a bachelor's degree in political science from the State University of New York at Cortland.
