

Joey Dizenhouse, FSA

Joey Dizenhouse has over 20 years of experience in the health/pharmacy insurance field with expertise in developing strategic design, delivery and financing solutions across health and welfare benefit segments for employees and retirees, health insurance exchanges, union negotiations, and customized solutions for group purchasing in healthcare. Joey has direct relationships and experience working with the nation's largest IDNs and employers. Today, Joey optimizes over $15B of annual drug purchasing on behalf of 25% of the nation's hospitals, 40,000+ ambulatory sites, and over 3.0M commercial lives across large plan sponsors. Prior to HealthTrust, Joey worked at Towers Watson where he focused on client development, relationship management, and business development strategies.