

Tracy Harris, MBA, MPA

Tracy Harris is a strategic experienced CFO, SEC Qualified Audit Committee Financial Expert, Board Finance & Nominating Committee Member and Audit Chair. A results-oriented leader who understands business well beyond the numbers, she deftly advises multi-billion-dollar organizations on growth strategy, financing, and operational transformation. Tracy's strong governance and expertise delivers financial turnarounds, scales for growth, and mitigates risk while maintaining accountability and compliance with finance, accounting, audit, tax, and regulatory relationships. Tracy is a director on the Board of the Bally's Corporation, an international company with approximately 10,500 employees spread in offices around the world. As an independent director serving on the Audit and Nominating Committees of 1847 Holdings LLC, Tracy advises on finance, internal controls, and compliance. Utilizing her expertise across investment, M&A, risk management and finance. She guides boards on accelerating growth, enhancing profitability, and achieving strategic business objectives, while remaining focused on employee culture, diversity and building inclusive communities.