

Stephen Nuckolls, MAC

Stephen Nuckolls is the CEO of Coastal Carolina Health Care, a multi-specialty physician-owned medical practice with 18 locations. He helped form the organization in 1997 and has been CEO since then. The group is proud of its high-quality care, which consistently ranks it among the top organizations in reported quality metrics. It is also proud of its programs that have helped reduce unnecessary costs in its value-based contracts, which cover over 75% of the group's patients. Mr. Nuckolls earned his BA in Economics from Davidson College and his MAC from UNC's Kenan-Flagler Business School. He is a founding member of National Association of ACOs and has served in several roles on the executive committee including board chair.
