

Patrick Tarnowski, PT, MBA

As OneStep's Chief Commercial Officer, Pat is accountable for the company's US market entry through strategic provider partnerships.

His deep healthcare experience as a leader in health plans, health systems, medical devices, startups, and digital care delivery support and enable OneStep's growth and scale. As an entrepreneur, Pat has successfully launched and scaled care delivery companies, digital solutions that focused on health and wellbeing, disease management and virtual care and worked with providers to achieve success in value-based payment models. He received his degree in physical therapy from Boston University and his master's in business administration from the University of St. Thomas. A lifelong learner, Pat has also held several academic appointments and is a grant reviewer for the National Science Foundation's SBIR seed fund and served as an Industry Mentor for their I-Corp Innovation program. He has been the principal investigator in numerous clinical studies and a member of the Finance and Audit Committee of the American Physical Therapy Association's and the Minnesota Cancer Alliance Steering Committee.