

Jennifer Wintermyer

For over 25 years, Jennifer Wintermyer has dedicated herself to community-based organizations (CBOs) focused on social determinants of health (SDOH). Since 2011, she has served as the Director of Family and Social Services for Tri County Community Action, later becoming their CEO in 2015. Jen actively engages with various boards and coalitions, lending her expertise to initiatives combating poverty, promoting equity, and addressing SDOH challenges on regional and national levels. Her contributions have earned her recognition, including being a finalist in the Central Pennsylvania Business Journal's Nonprofit Leadership Excellence Awards, Business Woman of the Year by the Carlisle Regional Chamber of Commerce, and Workforce Champion for the Latino Connection. Jennifer holds a bachelor's degree from Slippery Rock University and a master's from Youngstown State University.
